ABOUT NEHEMIAH

A non-profit affordable housing developer with a mission of providing decent, affordable housing to low income South Carolinians, Nehemiah was founded in 1993. In February 2018, the corporation will celebrate a quarter century of opening doors to affordable housing for some of South Carolina's most vulnerable families. The mission of Nehemiah is to be a South Carolina community catalyst, empowering and nurturing collaboratives to develop quality, affordable housing and independent life skills for low income people.

What began as the Nehemiah Corporation 25 years ago became the Nehemiah Community Revitalization Corporation in 2004. Nehemiah continues to enhance the communities in which it works through building high-quality community assets across the state for those in need: veterans, seniors, those living with mental or physical disabilities, and those living on limited incomes. Affordable homes are critical to ensuring the state's economic health long-term and are an essential component of sustainable and thriving communities.

Nehemiah CRC - Committed to Creating Neighborhoods of Hope for All South Carolinians.

Event Description

Home is Where the Heart is – a 25th Anniversary Celebration will commemorate Nehemiah's work over the past 25 years and the impact it has made in the lives of families and communities across SC. Proceeds from the event will go directly to serving vulnerable populations who need a safe, affordable place to call home.

Participants in the evening will enjoy a seated dinner as they benefit from an inspirational address from Robert Lupton, community developer and author of the well-known book, Toxic Charity. In addition to celebrating a quarter century of building affordable homes we will also recognize a valuable leader and champion for our cause, Tom Faulkner. Tom will be retiring from Nehemiah CRC after 25 years of service. He has left an indelible mark on our state as he has led the challenge for Nehemiah and strengthened community after community by making affordable housing a reality for many.

We are excited about bringing together our partners and friends in celebration of our 25th anniversary, the impactful career of Tom Faulkner and our collective efforts to provide housing and supports to individuals and families in need. We hope you will join us in the celebration!

Our Featured Speaker

Bob Lupton has invested the past 46 years in inner-city Atlanta. He left a budding business career to work with delinquent urban youth. Bob and his family sold their suburban home and moved into the inner-city where they have lived and served as neighbors among those in need. His life's work has been the rebuilding of urban neighborhoods where families can flourish and children can grow into healthy adults.

Bob Lupton

Bob is a community developer, an entrepreneur who brings together communities of resource with communities of need. Through FCS Urban Ministries – a non-profit organization which he founded – he has developed three mixed-income subdivisions, organized two multi-racial congregations, started a number of businesses, created housing for hundreds of families, and initiated a wide range of human services in his community. He is the author of six books, including the best-selling Toxic Charity. Bob has a PhD in psychology from the University of Georgia.
